Episode 1: Initializing Gno

- Installing Gno
- 🔆 Setting up a local environment
- Nelpful links available in the episode description

V Prerequisites

Basic programming knowledge

Understanding of Blockchain / Web3 fundamentals

What is Gno.Land?

- Ises Gno language an interpreted version of Go
- Secondary Focus on readable, open-source smart contracts

Core Components

- Realms → Smart contracts
- Packages → Reusable libraries

💰 Native Token: GnoT

Go Environment Setup

If Go isn't already set up, add the following to your shell config:

```
For bash, zsh, etc.
export PATH=$PATH:$HOME/go/bin

For fish shell users
set -gx PATH $PATH $HOME/go/bin
```

Restart your shell for the changes to take effect.

Coming Up in Episode 2

Build a basic Realm (smart contract) 🚀 Deploy locally using gnodev

Gnoweb / Write and run smart contract tests

Project: Mini social application